

Smithsonian Institution

Smithsonian Institution Archives

Waldo Schmitt - Expeditions to South America, correspondence, 1925 - 1930

Extracted on Apr-17-2024 06:09:30

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Smithsonian Institution Archives as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Smithsonian Institution Archives website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Smithsonian Institution Archives or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Smithsonian Institution Archives. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

Apr. 21,-27

My dear used to be-

I've only a minute to devote to you-yes, just a minute! I'm much too busy these days to moon about for a man whose forgotten his family!

You'll pay for this! If you could hear all the joking I have to stand you'd know why you'll have to pay for this! At Mrs. Westmore's tea I met the smarty Kellogg woman and lots of others I know of course and one of them said that I looked so (I did look extremely well, new clothes did it) and said I didn't look as though I'd been married more than a year. Then some one else said "but she has alright or her husband wouldn't be leaving her as long as this." Then came a grand haw!haw! that was

Apr. 21, - 27.

My dear - used to be - I've only a minute to devote to you - yes, just a minute! I'm much too busy these days to moon around about a man whose forgotten his family!
You'll pay up for this! If you could hear all the joking I have to stand you'd know why you'll have to pay up! At Mrs. Westmore's tea I met the smarty Kellogg woman and lots of others I know of course and one of them said that I looked so well (I did look extremely well, new clothes did it) and said I didn't look as though I'd been married more than a year. Then some one else said "but she has alright or her husband wouldn't be leaving her as long as this." Then came a grand haw!haw! that was

Waldo Schmitt - Expeditions to South America, correspondence, 1925 - 1930
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers Extracted Apr-17-2024 06:09:30

Smithsonian Institution

Smithsonian Institution Archives

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian