

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

Jacques Seligmann & Co. records, General Correspondence: McMillen, Inc., 1933-1941

Extracted on Mar-29-2024 01:45:45

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives of American Art as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives of American Art website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives of American Art or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives of American Art. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

^[[checkmark]]

RHW:R

June 9th, 1937

McMillen, Inc.
148 East 55th Street
New York, New York

[[underlined]] Attention of Miss Christian [[/underlined]]

Dear Miss Christian:

In reference to a conversation over the telephone with your secretary relating to your inquiry about a Louis XV writing desk, I had already given you the verbal information about it yesterday.

However, I find that we are in possession of a photograph of this desk which I am sending you herewith enclosed as it, no doubt, will give you a far better idea of the object. You will find the exact measurements on the back of the photograph, and I understand they are just what you are looking for.

The table came from the collection of the late Duchess d'Uzès. As I told your secretary, our selling price is $3,800.00 but I have made the price of $3,000.00 net to us to your firm.

I would be very happy to show you the original any time convenient to you, and if there is any way in which I can collaborate with you, please do not hesitate to let me know.

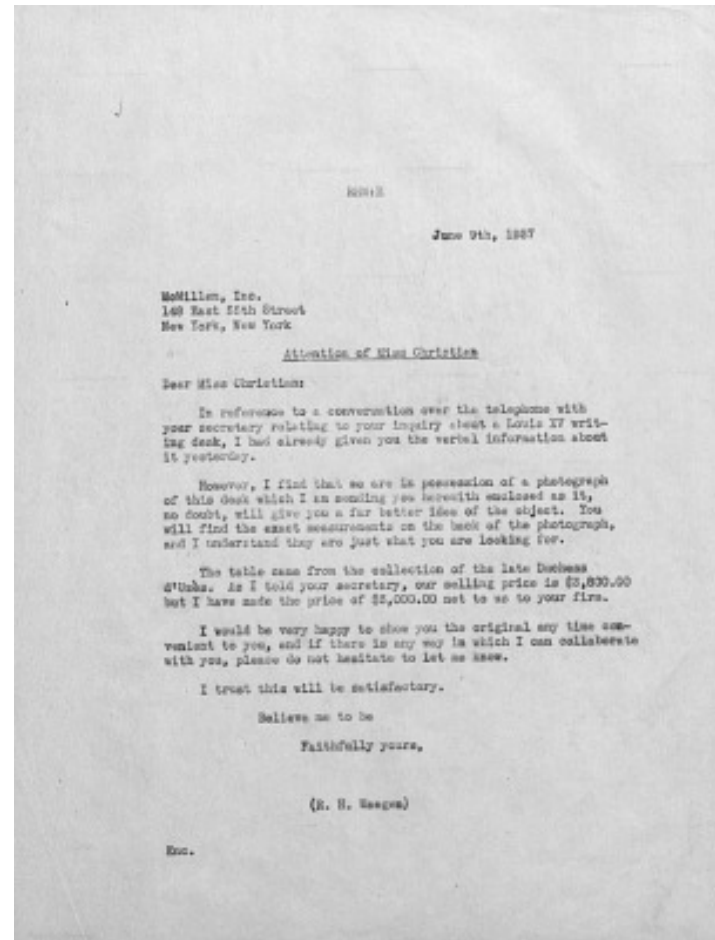

I trust this will be satisfactory.

Believe me to be

Faithfully yours,

(R.H. Waegen)

Enc.

Jacques Seligmann & Co. records, General Correspondence: McMillen, Inc., 1933-1941
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Mar-29-2024 01:45:45

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian