My Dear Professor.

In reply to yours of the 5th inst. I send by express to day 250 copies of Bulletin 6. of the extra edition ordereded for your use. In regard to another Bulletins I cannot say definitely to-day as our printing account has not been made up yet, and I do not know how we stand. I will suggest however that you make the requisition in due form, and then if the fund will admit I will see that its publication is ordered.

Very respectfully
