was to be regarded as ordering his property to be set apart. Your letter was answered in the affirmative, by mistake, as the note of Aug. 26th referred to property of John A Washington. The similarity of names has caused confusion.

Mr. John C Washington is here applying for pardon and restoration of property. Will you please send information at once as to whether his estate has been actually divided up for freedmen and whether necessity seems to demand that it should be.

Very Respectfully
Your Obt Servt.
