Bureau Refugees, Freedmen & Abandoned Lands,
Office Claim Agent & Ass't Sup't, Sub-District of New Berne,
New Berne, N.C., December 27th, 1866.

Brvt. Lieut. Col. J.F. Chur
Act. Asst. Adjt. Genl

Colonel.

I have the honor to request that transportation be furnished the following named Freedwoman and Children, from New Berne N.C. to Elizabeth City N.C. viz:
Feribee [[?]] Martin aged 50 years and four children, Jinny aged 16 years. Rose aged 11 years. Dave aged 10 years and Washington aged 5 years. This woman wishes to go to Elizabeth City to join her husband that he may contribute to the support of their children. They are not healthy, having had the Small Pox during the past season. I do not think they will become a charge upon the Government if sent to their home, but I have every reason to believe they will become so if they remain here.

Very Respectfully
Your Obedient Servant
