

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

Jacques Seligmann & Co. records, General Correspondence: Lovet-Lorski, Boris, 1942-1944

Extracted on Mar-28-2024 12:51:27

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives of American Art as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives of American Art website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives of American Art or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives of American Art. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

22 - Sept. 9th., 1943.

Dear Boris:

It was a great pleasure indeed, to receive your letter of August 29th., in which you definitely announce your trip East, as I am so much looking forward to seeing you again. Yes, I expect to be in New York at the end of September and in October.

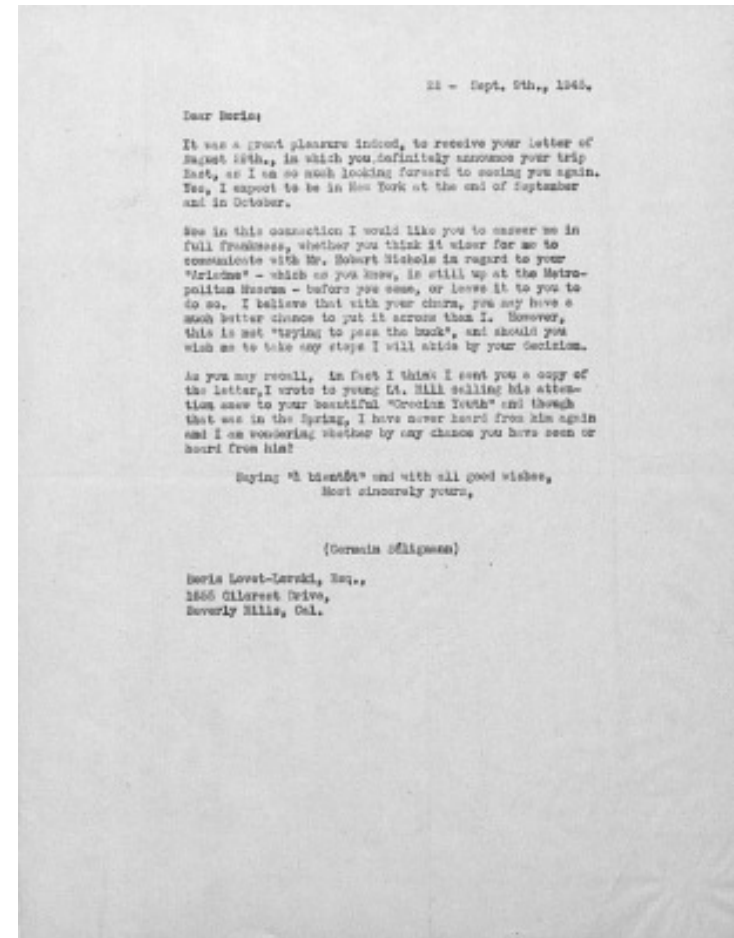

Now in this connection I would like you to answer me in full frankness, whether you think it wiser for me to communicate with Mr. Robert Nichols in regard to your "Ariadne" - which as you know, is still up at the Metropolitan Museum - before you come, or leave it to you to do so. I believe that with your charm, you may have a much better chance to put it across than I. However, this is not "trying to pass the buck", and should you wish me to take any steps I will abide by your decision.

As you may recall, in fact I think I sent you a copy of the letter, I wrote to young Lt. Hill calling his attention anew to your beautiful "Grecian Youth" and though that was in the Spring, I have never heard from him again and I am wondering whether by any chance you have seen or heard from him?

Saying "à bientôt" and with all good wishes,
Most sincerely yours,

(Germain Séligmann)

Boris Lovet-Lorski, Esq.,
1655 Gilcrest Drive,
Beverly Hills, Cal.

Jacques Seligmann & Co. records, General Correspondence: Lovet-Lorski, Boris, 1942-1944
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Mar-28-2024 12:51:27

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian