Walter Pach

A black and white photograph of a handwritten letter on a piece of paper with a faint horizontal crease. The handwriting is in cursive and matches the typed transcription on the left. The text is written in French and expresses wishes for a good journey and visits to collections. The signature 'Walter Pach.' is at the bottom right.

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
