

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

Jacques Seligmann & Co. records, General Correspondence: Pach, Walter, 1932-1952

Extracted on Apr-16-2024 12:47:57

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives of American Art as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives of American Art website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives of American Art or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives of American Art. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

November Twentieth
1 9 4 0

Dear Mr. Pach:

Now that the last hour of the "Masterpieces of Art" is approaching, and most of the problems have been settled, our work of the past year will soon be a matter of the past and of art history.

I do not want to leave these offices, however, without congratulating you on the results of this exhibition, which though it may not have proven a great success financially, has been and will be for many years to come a cultural and educational landmark.

I also want to express in a few words what a pleasure and a privilege it has been to collaborate with you on this great undertaking, of which I shall carry at all times but the most pleasant recollections. Kindly accept my very best wishes, and also please express to Mrs. Pach my sincere thanks for her indefatigable efforts in helping us both to get this collection together.

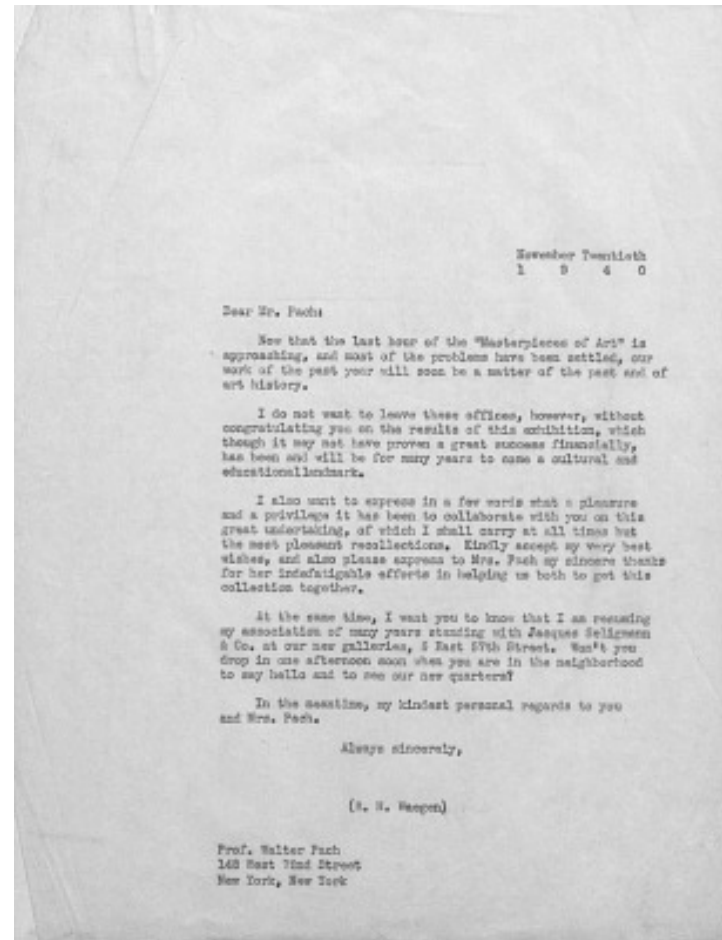

At the same time, I want you to know that I am resuming my association of many years standing with Jacques Seligmann & Co. at our new galleries, 5 East 57th Street. Won't you drop in one afternoon soon when you are in the neighborhood to say hello and to see our new quarters?

In the meantime, my kindest personal regards to you and Mrs. Pach.

Always sincerely,

(R. H. Waegen)

Prof. Walter Pach
148 West 72nd Street
New York, New York

Jacques Seligmann & Co. records, General Correspondence: Pach, Walter, 1932-1952
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Apr-16-2024 12:47:57

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian