Smithsonian Institution
Archives of American Art

Jacques Seligmann & Co. records, General Correspondence: Pach, Walter, 1932-1952

Extracted on Mar-29-2024 05:14:03

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives of American Art as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives of American Art website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives of American Art or transcribe@si.edu feel that it is only when the war will have taken a more positive turn for the better, that people's minds will again look towards art, which the majority unfortunately consider purely as a great luxury. Who knows whether you might not be able to develop an interest in art among some of the great Mexicans?

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives of American Art. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

To close this letter I will preak to you the very sad news of Hans Waegen's death. He died on September 3rd., having contracted pneumonia anew, which was too much of a strain on his heart condition. He enjoyed so much working with you on the World's Fair - how long ago that all seems! - that I feel sure you will be very much effected by his passing. To me it is a great loss besides having been associated with my firm for over fifteen years, he was indeed a very true friend of mine.

Will you please remember me to your wife, and, with my best regards,

Sincerely yours,

(Germain Séligmann)

Walter Pach, Esq.,
Michoacan Bl,
Mexico, D. F.,
Mexico.

Jacques Seligmann & Co. records, General Correspondence: Pach, Walter, 1932-1952
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Mar-29-2024 05:14:03

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities.Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!
The Transcription Center: https://transcription.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter
On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian
Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian
On Twitter: @smithsonian