Dear Mr. Baderou:

The reprint of Charles Sterling's article in the Gazette des Beaux Arts of October, 1934, has just reached me and I hasten to thank you for having thought of sending it on to me.

The envelope arrived open and if I am calling this to your attention, it is simply in case there should have been any other document than the Gazette or even a note from you, as the Gazette is the only item I found in it. It is quite sufficient in itself!

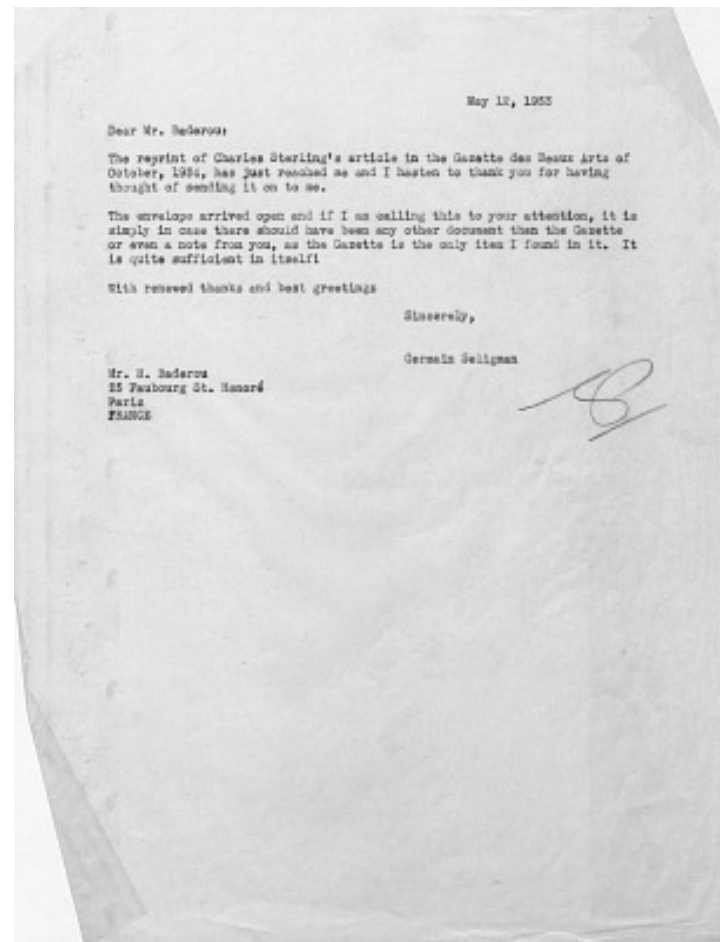

With renewed thanks and best greetings

Sincerely,

Germain Seligman
