Dear Friends:-

Your note was welcome received few days ago.

Very glad to know you are back in the good old town. There are many things I want to tell you, so will gladly look you up next time I get to the city. Last week I returned home after a three weeks

A handwritten letter on aged, yellowish paper. The text is written in a cursive script. The letter begins with 'Dear Friends:-' and continues with a message of welcome and a promise to visit. The handwriting is fluid and characteristic of the early 20th century.
