Mr. Blitzer reported that the members of the National Portrait Gallery Commission, at their meeting on January 22, 1980, unanimously recommended the appointment of the Honorable Robert B. Morgan and Mr. Thomas Mellon Evans to the Commission. The terms for the new Commissioners would run until 1986 and 1984, respectively.

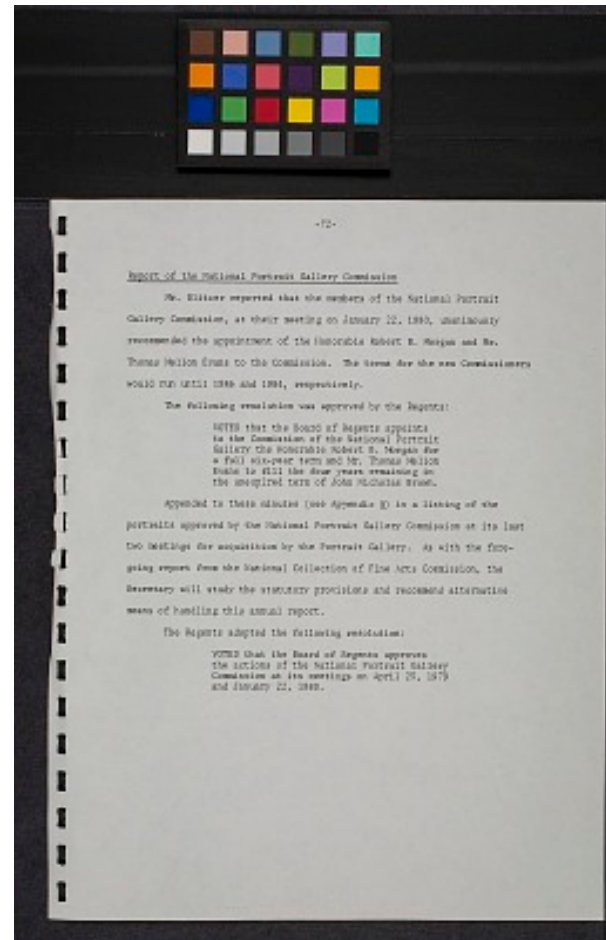

The following resolution was approved by the Regents:

As with the foregoing report from the National Collection of Fine Arts Commission, the Secretary will study the statutory provisions and recommend alternative means of handling this annual report.
