Smithsonian Institution
National Anthropological Archives

Alice Cunningham Fletcher Papers- La Flesche to Fletcher Box: 5A, 1912

Extracted on Mar-29-2024 03:55:35

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

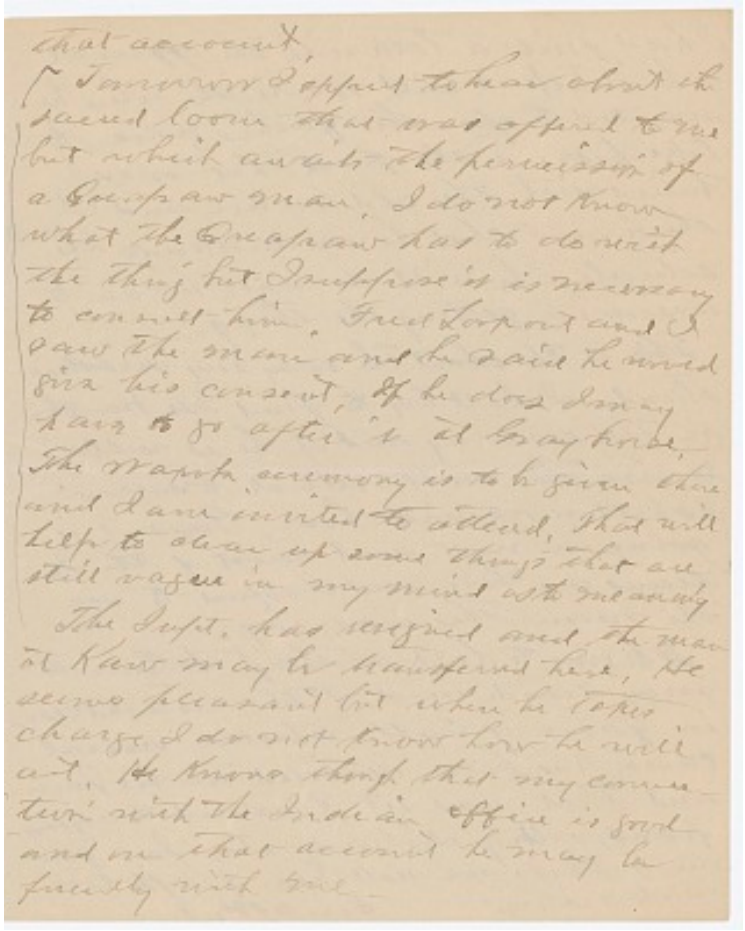

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the National Anthropological Archives as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the National Anthropological Archives website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact National Anthropological Archives or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the National Anthropological Archives. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

that account.

Tomorrow I expect to hear about the sacred loom that was offered to me but which awaits the permission of a Quapaw man. I do not know what the Quapaw has to do with the thing but I suppose it is necessary to consult him. Fred Lookout and I saw the man and he said he would give his consent. If he does I may hav to go after it at Grayhorse. The Waxoba ceremony is to be given there and I am invited to attend. That will help to clear up some things that are still vague in my mind as to meaning

The Supt. has resigned and the man at Kaw may be transferred here. He seems pleasant but when he takes charge I do not know how he will act. He knows though that my conversation with the Indian office is good and on that account he may be friendly with me.

Alice Cunningham Fletcher Papers- La Flesche to Fletcher Box: 5A, 1912
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Mar-29-2024 03:55:35

Smithsonian Institution
National Anthropological Archives

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities.Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!
The Transcription Center: https://transcription.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter
On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian
Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian
On Twitter: @smithsonian