been here. (and Vernon Castle makes 31. Too bad for Capt. Castle and my own mate Peyton March Jr. whom I saw crash!)

In the danger area are silhouette forms of aeroplanes made of cloth. We fired at these from the turret machines and for diversion made the dust fly at other objects in the danger zone. One fellow actually had the audacity to take a pop at a cross roads. One chap shot away a control wire and landed "with a blacksmith shop accompanying him". sometime ago a foolish youth directed a misapplied shot at a wagon; the farmer who was driving

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
