February 5th, 1935.

Dear Mrs. Natanson:

I acknowledge receipt of your kind lines of January 23rd and I am sorry to say that we have been unable to sell your ^[[pencilled line underneath part of text]] Seurat drawing at our [[/pencilled line]] exhibition.

It has therefore been returned to Paris about three weeks ago, and should be in your hands by the time you receive this letter.

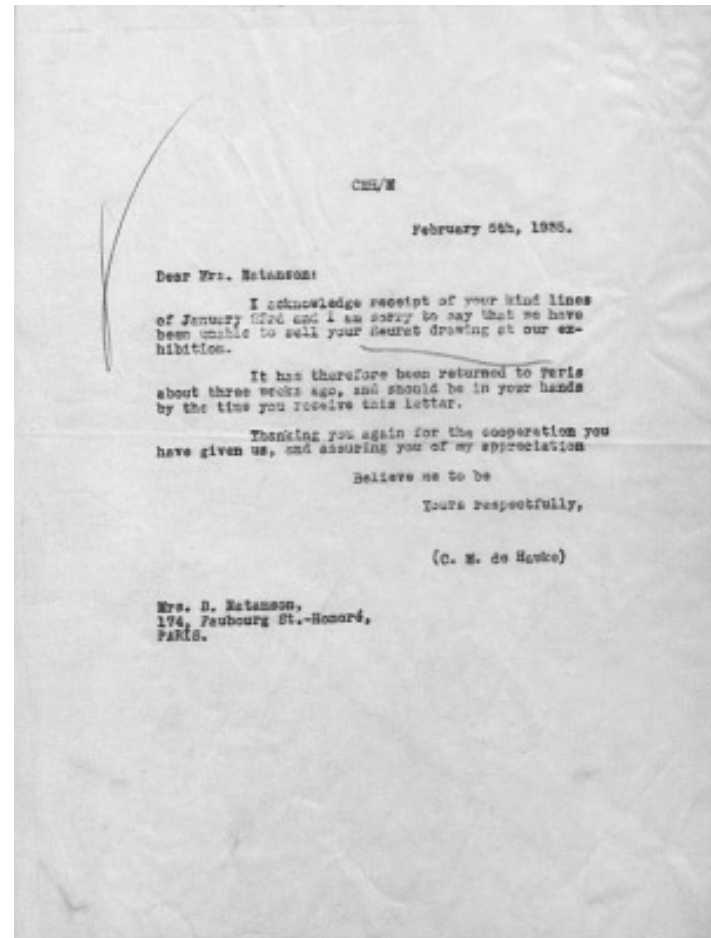

Thanking you again for the cooperation you have given us, and assuring you of my appreciation

Believe me to be

Yours respectfully,

(C. M. de Hauke)

Mrs. B. Natanson,
174, Faubourg St.-Honoré,
PARIS.
