Washington April 6 1870

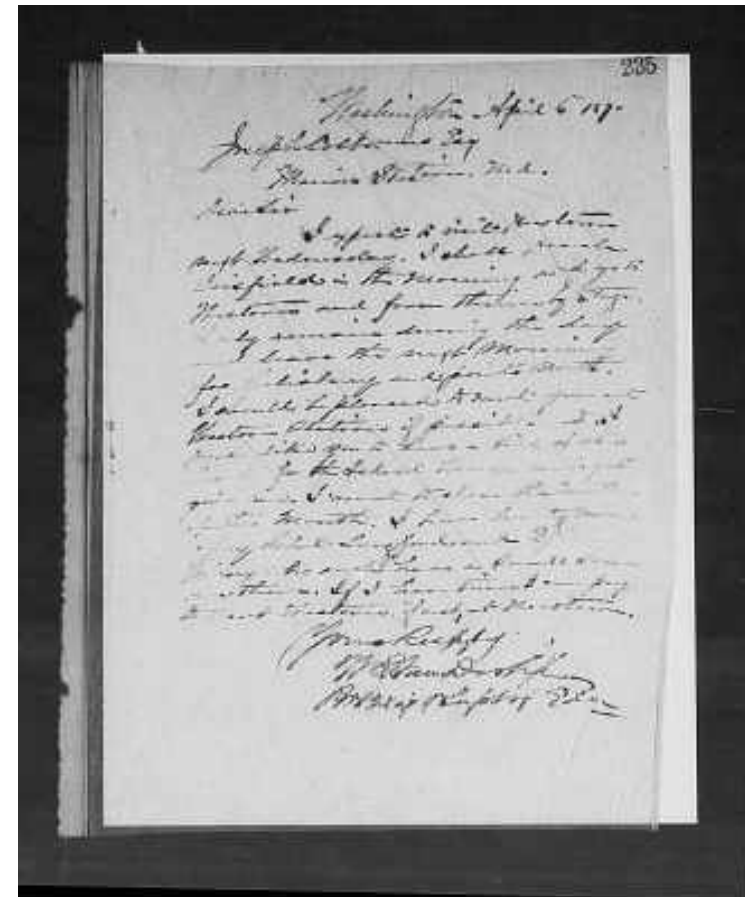

Joseph Colbourne Esq
Marion Station, Md.

Dear Sir

I expect to visit Newtown next Wednesday. I shall reach Crisfield in the morning and go to Westown and from thence by stage. I only remain during the day and leave the next morning for Salisbury and points North. I should be pleased to meet you at Westown Station if possible and I would like you to have a bill of the Sale [[?]] for the School house ready to give me. I want to close the [[?]] of this month. I have here the money to pay Robert Langford and [[Eph?]] Wilson who each have a small [[?]]. If I have time I can pay them at Westown, if not, at Newtown.

Yours Respfy

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
