District of Columbia Education, Unregistered Letters Received, A-Z, 1866, Part 1

Extracted on Aug-04-2022 01:02:18

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Freedmen's Bureau as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Freedmen's Bureau website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Freedmen's Bureau or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Freedmen's Bureau. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.
have not seen a thing to actually condemn. They are kind & polite to me & the Cap't in charge here and Mr [[?]] of the other place are very gentlemanly & polite to me. And say I shall have all I need to further school. I shall wait patiently and be satisfied. I had 75 scholars to day and 34 to night. I love to teach & learn. I like the colored people and am determined my school shall improve. I want to stop & let all see that they have done me injustice & then I shall have given our scholars a good push & I will go home if you wish. My scholars shall learn

[left margin] There will come and see it and [[left margin]]

[right margin] judge for thyself. And I will answer any question you ask me concerning anything Col Children may tell you [[right margin]]
The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!
The Transcription Center: https://transcription.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter
On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian
Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian
On Twitter: @smithsonian