Roundabout Theatre Company productions are made possible, in part, with public funds from the National Endowment for the Arts, the New York State Council on the Arts, the New York State Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation, and the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs.

We also wish to thank the thousands of contributors in our Donor, Associate and Member categories of support who, regrettably, cannot be listed due to space limitations. The Roundabout Theatre Company relies on contributions because ticket revenue covers only a portion of our annual operating expenses. Supporters receive many special privileges including invitations to playreadings, opening night parties, VIP ticket assistance and more.

For further information, please call Julia C. Levy, Director of Development/Public Affairs, at (212)719-9393. Please note: many corporations match employee contributions. Please check with your employer or corporate contributions program officer.

National Museum of African American History and Culture

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
