On October 22, 1978, New York City again hosts the marathon of marathons. Over 10,000 runners... more than a million spectators... a five-borough course that starts on the world's longest suspension bridge, and ends in Central Park.

At Manufacturers Hanover, we're totally committed to improving the quality of life in the markets we serve. Not only through banking on a local, national and international scale but also by sponsoring community events, like the New York City Marathon.

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
