but we enjoyed it very much.

Now for the sad news. I cannot furnish the much needed orders. They along with some more of my paper for I have tried to keep up with them have been lost in one of my numerous moves. Sure am sorry Doc, and hope you will soon find a P. M. who has some horse sense. I've just gotten my flying orders but haven't heard from the voucher I put in a few days ago. Saw your name on an order some time ago.

Dave Lansden has gone down in SO. Fr. to teach. A Maj. from the 6th told me that Joe had gone home, that Chas. R. was due back from hospital after a leg wound and that Herb had been transferred to a M.G. outfit.

A photograph of a handwritten letter on aged, yellowed paper. The handwriting is in cursive, written in dark ink. The letter is a personal communication, likely from a soldier to his family, discussing military orders, personnel changes, and personal news. The text is written in several paragraphs, with some lines crossed out or corrected. The paper shows signs of age, including slight discoloration and wear at the edges.

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
