

Theodore E. Boyd World War I Collection - Handwritten Memoirs and Rosters

Extracted on Mar-29-2024 07:48:03

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

14

then enlisted and achieved a commission from the ranks. He was therefore somewhat older than the West Point graduates of his rank.

Aside from the group of friends already mentioned, I remember from the 8th battery, as more or less good friends, Herbert Sessions, an instructor from the Citadel at Charleston. He was a spare chap, a military martinet, and I suspect a good soldier. Also Dick Manigault, who had in an amusing degree the peculiar accent and inflection characteristic of Charlestonians; Chappell, a Christian Scientist from North Carolina; Dick, a dapper young Citadel graduate; MacIvor, from upstate South Carolina; Stribling, a young engineer from Clemson College; Sidney Farnsworth, a Princeton man from Memphis; a bow legged young Jew named Hexter, from Chicago, who had been a cavalryman in the National Guard and was one of our best horesemen; Henry Poague, an instructor from V.M.I., and Barringer, a student from the same school.

A day or two after the battery was organized, news came that the artillery units were all to be sent to some place in the southwest- I believe Fort Sam Houston, at San Antonio,- for training. We packed our belongings one afternoon, preparing to entrain early the following morning. That night, however, the original order was cancelled and we stayed at Chickamuaga Park.

By this time, David Lee, my fellow Carthaginian, had been eliminated at the second physical examination. Shortly afterward orders came to weed out such remaining cadets as were considered undesirable for the reserve officers corps. Willis West was sent home. Sam Felts was also dropped, but went directly to Colonel Slocum and in a

Then enlisted and achieved a commission from the runks. He was therefore somewhat older Than the west faint graduates of his unite from the group of friends already wentinged is remember that the Eth battery, as more or has good friends, Herland Sessions, on instructor from the citable of Charleston. He was a speel chap, a military martines, and I suspect a good soldier. also Dick Manigault who had in an announce degree The prosteins while had an and arrivating disper. The problem asserted and impleation obstructuration of Charles. Teniams, in characteristic of Charles. Teniams, in the Same of the second state of the Same of the a carethyman on the rational board and was one of our best barrans; thing loage, an included from V. M. I., and Babrings. a student from the same solved. A day or two after the billing was organized news value that the artillery units were all To be sent to the some place in the southwest to be sent to the one plat in the southwest of San distance, for Training We packed our telongings one afternoon, preparing to knothin early the original order was remeded and me olayed at Chicken many that my pelare they this time, David Fee, my pelare Cartleginian, had been eliminated at the second physical examination. Strong after ward brilles same to week out and lemain ing eadels as were considered underirable job The receive officer corper Willis West was and time . Sale Fells was also anyped, but ment directly to colonel shown and in a

Theodore E. Boyd World War I Collection - Handwritten Memoirs and Rosters
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Mar-29-2024 07:48:03

Smithsonian Institution

Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: https://transcription.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian

On Twitter: @smithsonian