First Day Out Of School

Dear Agatha,

I have a terrific guilty complex about my Christmas cards. Yours is the first I am addressing. I do hope you receive it before New Years. I can never touch my cards until school is out for my duties at this particular season are so heavy that I am completely undone in the evenings. Christmas music at the church and special Christmas programs at both school and church use all of my energy.

We had such a wonderful time at your party. You are
