

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

Letters from Margaret Dreier Robins, 1907-1914

Extracted on Apr-19-2024 05:02:07

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives of American Art as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives of American Art website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives of American Art or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives of American Art. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

^[[Gretchen to Dorothea]]
[[preprinted]] 1437 WEST OHIO STREET
CHICAGO [[/preprinted]]

December 6, 1913.

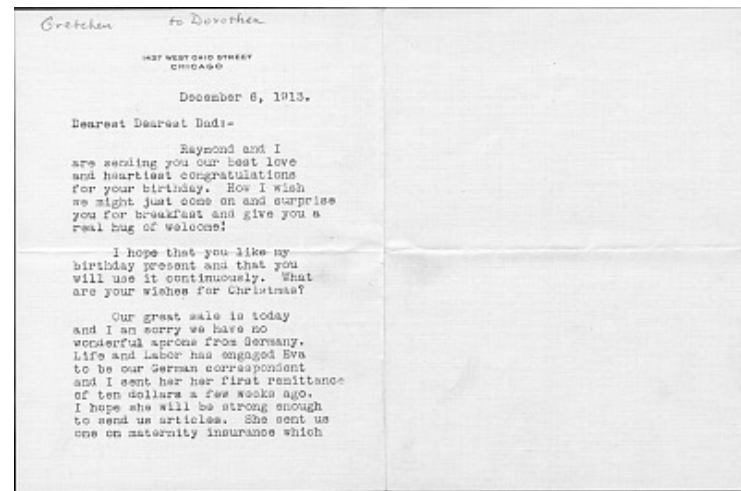

Dearest Dearest Dad:-

Raymond and I are sending you our best love and heartiest congratulations for your birthday. How I wish we might just come on and surprise you for breakfast and give you a real hug of welcome!

I hope that you like my birthday present and that you will use it continuously. What are your wishes for Christmas?

Our great sale is today and I am sorry we have no wonderful aprons from Germany. Life and Labor has engaged Eva to be our German correspondent and I sent her her first remittance of ten dollars a few weeks ago. I hope she will be strong enough to send us articles. She sent us one on maternity insurance which

[[end page]]
[[blank page]]

Letters from Margaret Dreier Robins, 1907-1914
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Apr-19-2024 05:02:07

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian