Dear Mr. Jones

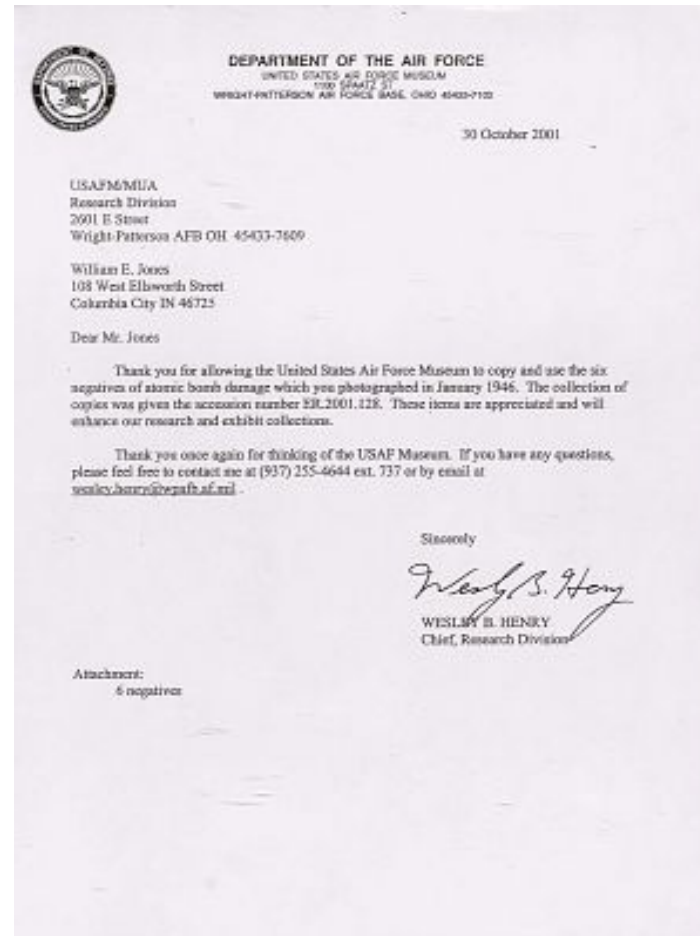

Thank you for allowing the United States Air Force Museum to copy and use the six negatives of atomic bomb damage which you photographed in January 1946. The collection of copies was given the accession number ER.2001.128. These items are appreciated and will enhance our research and exhibit collections.

Thank you again for thinking of the USAF Museum. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at (937)255-4644 ext. 737 or by email at wesley.henry@wpafb.af.mil.

Sincerely

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
