McKeesport Woman Flier Scores in Air Carnival

Three Pittsburgh district women fliers participated in the air carnival for women at Baltimore yesterday, one winning first place in the aerobatic contest. Miss Helen Bishop, of McKeesport, who also placed third in the large airplane contest, said she was the aerobics winner.

Miss Leslie H. Truesdale and Miss Alice McCracken, of Pittsburgh, also participated in the contests. Miss Fayet Brown, of Oakley Avenue, E. L., won the five-mile race over a course she chose. There were 12 women in the meet.

Miss Amanda Margaret Perkins, flying from New York to Baltimore in six minutes, was forced to make trouble and was unable to touch the land for the meet. Frank W. Hawks took a quick taxi from Washington, D.C., making the trip in 23 minutes. He had a word said to his dog and then flew away.
