

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

Delegate Magazine 1968

Extracted on Apr-19-2024 02:15:27

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the National Museum of African American History and Culture as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the National Museum of African American History and Culture website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact National Museum of African American History and Culture or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the National Museum of African American History and Culture. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

[[advertisement]]

[[image - black & white photograph of 3 male and 1 female airline employees, in airline uniforms]]

[[caption]] [[L/R]] Captain Howard R. Hinchman, First Officer John Gordon, Hostess Saundra K. Jett, Flight Engineer William S. Cole, Jr. [[/caption]]

The class of '68.

Over the past few years, Howard, John and Bill have logged thousands of hours with TWA—along our routes throughout the U.S., Europe, Africa, Asia. But they're still the Class of '68. Because just a few weeks ago, they graduated from a refresher course at the TWA Flight Training Center in Kansas City—a base so advanced, other airlines use it to train their crews.

Howard, John and Bill—like all TWA crews—represent the best in airline flight personnel anywhere in the world today. But even that won't stop them having to graduate all over again, at their next regular refresher course. They'll come back and be the Class of '69.

What about Saundra Jett? She was chosen out of thousands of applicants. In fact, only one out of every 36 makes it with TWA because we set such high standards for our girls.

People like this put TWA in a class by itself.

up up and away*[[image - logo-TWA]]

*Service mark owned exclusively by Trans World Airlines, Inc.
[[/advertisement]]

Howard R. Hinchman, Captain
John Gordon, First Officer
Saundra K. Jett, Hostess
William S. Cole, Jr., Flight Engineer

The class of '68.

Over the past few years, Howard, John and Bill have logged thousands of hours with TWA—along our routes throughout the U.S., Europe, Africa, Asia. But they're still the Class of '68. Because just a few weeks ago, they graduated from a refresher course at the TWA Flight Training Center in Kansas City—a base so advanced, other airlines use it to train their crews.

Howard, John and Bill—like all TWA crews—represent the best in airline flight personnel anywhere in the world today. But even that won't stop them having to graduate all over again, at their next regular refresher course. They'll come back and be the Class of '69.

What about Saundra Jett? She was chosen out of thousands of applicants. In fact, only one out of every 36 makes it with TWA because we set such high standards for our girls.

People like this put TWA in a class by itself.

up up and away*

*Service mark owned exclusively by Trans World Airlines, Inc.

Delegate Magazine 1968
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Apr-19-2024 02:15:27

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian