Discover home in a place you've never been.

It's somewhere far. Yet very close to home.

It's an island where Black is the majority. Where proud Black men and women govern the politics and shape the culture of their land.

It's Jamaica, the Bahamas, Virgin Islands.

It's home. With warm beaches and clear tropical waters. It's Caribbean styled restaurants that serve everything from steaks to delicious island dishes.

It's rum drinks you've never heard of. And steel drums at an all-night, costumed carnival in the streets. And it's available 12 months a year.

So come on home, to a place you've never been.

Get into the music. And the people. Get into your people. And you may get into yourself. On an Eastern-planned vacation.

Call your travel agent or Eastern.

National Museum of African American History and Culture

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
