Some foreign places aren't so foreign.

If you've been on American Airlines for business you already know about our superior service.

Well, that's the same service we offer to a destination your whole family will enjoy.

Let us take you to a sun-drenched Caribbean island where people live differently, dress differently, talk differently- but speak the same language.

Where people created a world as foreign as steel bands and costumed carnivals. And as familiar as a good pot of gumbo.

Where you can spend your days on the beach, in the shops, at the golf course-and your nights on the town.

Where the lush green hills face into warm tropical waters.

So your children have miles of open beaches to play on. Clear water to swim in. Trees to climb, horses to ride and native children to teach them about a different Black culture.

Take your family to the Caribbean on an American Airlines vacation.

We have the lowest priced vacations available.

In fact, whether you're interested in economy or extravagance, American gives you the most for your money.

Call your Travel Agent or American Airlines, and ask for our Endless Summer Vacations.

National Museum of African American History and Culture

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
