Annual Fredrick Douglass Awards Dinner

The Dinners are the largest fund-raising event for the New York Urban League and are attended by some 1,500 guests at $100 a plate, with the proceeds going to Urban League programs of education, employment, housing, and health. The many dignitaries present make the affair an outstanding event of the year.

A sports' highlight of the New York Urban League's special events is the Annual Whitney M. Young Football Classic, which is the largest interracial sponsored Black athletic event in the United States, is played every fall. In previous years it has attracted sell out crowds and is expected to continue this trend. The game, in honor of the progressive and effective late Executive Director of the National Urban League, draws fans from all over the United States and Caribbean. The Classic is an important additional funding source for League programs. Prominent teams like Grambling, North Carolina, A&T, and Morgan States, and others, promise a thrilling and memorable afternoon.

As a past president of the New York branch, Mr. Millard has again presented his check to insure this year, the 5th Annual Whitney M. Young Memorial game.
