

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

Delegate Magazine 1977

Extracted on Apr-20-2024 10:31:00

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the National Museum of African American History and Culture as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the National Museum of African American History and Culture website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact National Museum of African American History and Culture or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the National Museum of African American History and Culture. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

at Fords

[[image - black and white headshot photograph of Jon E. Herbert]]

The appointment of Jon E. Herbert as Davenport District Manager of the Ford Motor Company Parts and Service Division was announced by T. J. O'Halloran, Central Region Manager, in Kansas City, Mo.

Mr. Herbert, who has been Assistant District Manager of the Davenport District since December, 1974, joined Ford in 1965 as an accountant in the Ford Division. He held various sales and administrative positions in the Ford Parts and Service Division's Detroit, Mich., and Buffalo, N.Y. district offices.

[[image - black and white photograph of Renee Williams speaking into a handheld microphone]]

READY GUIDE - Renee Williams, a summer guide at Ford Motor Company's Guest Center in Dearborn, Mich., as visitors were bused to the Rouge manufacturing complex nearby. Ms. Williams, a sophomore at Wayne State University, was one of 21 local students hired by Ford to welcome summer visitors.

[[image - black and white headshot photograph of Tillman Dozier]]

Ford Motor Company has created three managerial positions as a part of its affirmative action program for the upward mobility of minorities and women and to further the company's equal opportunity objectives.

Tillman Dozier has been appointed Personnel Planning Manager—Minorities and Marion Corwell has been named Personnel Planning Manager—Women. Robert E. Stenberg has been appointed Equal Employment Planning Manager. All are within the company's Personnel and Organization Staff.

Mr. Dozier joined Ford in 1964 as a statistical analyst. He became Educational Affairs Program Coordinator in 1970, and Personnel and Organization Staff Educational Advisor in 1972. He has been Assistant Industrial Relations Manager for Ford's Trim Operations since last year.

[[image - black and white headshot photograph of Louis M. Callaway, Jr.]]

The appointment of Louis M. Callaway, Jr., as Plant Manager of Ford's Chicago Assembly Plant was announced today.

A native of Gary, Indiana, Mr. Callaway assumed his new position Thursday (October 28), less than nine months after he was named Assistant Plant Manager. He will supervise over 3,800 employees in the plant, at 12600 S. Torrence Ave., which manufactures Ford's Thunderbird.

93

Delegate Magazine 1977
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Apr-20-2024 10:31:00

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian