

Delegate Magazine 1978

Extracted on Mar-28-2024 01:42:01

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the National Museum of African American History and Culture as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the National Museum of African American History and Culture website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact National Museum of African American History and Culture or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the National Museum of African American History and Culture. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

Come to Portland, Oregon for the

69th Annual N.A.A.C.P. Convention JULY 3-7, 1978

On August 1, 1977, Benjamin L. Hooks became the ninth executive director of the NAACP. His selection had been confirmed seven months earlier when the Board of Directors unanimously approved the recommendation of the Search and Screening Committee at a special meeting in New York on November 6.

He was then a commissioner of the Federal Communications Commission, having been appointed in 1972 for a seven-year term.

Of his election, Mrs. Margaret Bush Wilson, chairman of the Board of Directors, said: "This is an historic occasion, for it has not been often that we in the NAACP had the responsibility of seeking a person to fill the position of Executive Director. Some will find historic significance too in the fact that we have chosen a man from the South to guide the NAACP just as the electorate has chosen a Southerner to lead the nation."

She noted the extent to which all Americans were indebted to Roy Wilkins, Mr. Hooks' predecessor, for his leadership in bringing revolutionary social change to the nation. But the task is unfinished. "No victim of racism and bigotry has any illusions about the dimensions of the mission ahead in the struggle for human dignity and justice and equality." Despite civil rights gains, black Americans and other minor minorities still face discrimination.

So the challenge "lies in helping to marshall the real strengths of this nation of varied people—to forge a partnership among equals committed to the full realization of the founding principles of this great country."

Hooks thus has taken over from Roy Wilkins, who in turn succeeded Walter White upon his death in April 1955. Wilkins first joined the NAACP staff as assistant secretary in 1931. He had been a hard-hitting managing editor of the Kansas City Call, where he gained the reputation as a crusader against racial injustice.

Before Walter White there had been James Weldon Johnson, who began the crusade against lynching and discrimination in the armed services. Walter White stepped up these fights, especially that against lynching, often risking his own life as he conducted on-the-spot investigations. His very light complexion permitted him to mingle often with lynch mobs and actually witness the dismemberment of the hapless black victims. Much of his experiences are scorecard, entitled Thirty Years of Lynching, 1889-1918, which is still available at the NAACP National Office.

Johnson is especially remembered for his creation of "Lift Ev'ry Voice and Sing," which today is popularly referred to as the black national anthem. It was from one of these stanzas that the NAACP 1977 convention slogan. "Our New Day Begun," was taken.

Other executive secretaries, as they were then known, were John P. Shillady, the first fully paid executive administrator, Roy Nash, May Childs Nerney, Mary White Ovington and Miss Francis Blascoer.

Like his predecessors, Mr. Hooks is a seasoned leader. A well-known

Come to Portland, Oregon for the

69th Annual N.A.A.C.P. Convention

JULY 3-7, 1978

On August 1, 1977, Bergaren L. Heolis became the nime accustion director of the NAACP, His solicition had been continued seven months ealier which the Shard of Directors unselmostly accproved the recommendation of the Search and Screening Committee at a special needing in New Yank or Micromittee Co.

Ho was then a commissioner of the Pederal Communications Commission, having been appointed in 1972 for a seven-year term.

Of his election, Mer, Margaret Bush Wilson, chairman of the Barra of Birechot, said: "This is an historic occasion, for it has not been often that we in the MAACP had the reoperability of seeking a parson to 16 the posterior of Elective Circle. for Some will find historic displication to in me but that we have chosen a man from the South to guide the MAACP part as the electrate has chosen a Southernes to listed the region."

She neted the ortical to which all Americans were insided in Fing Williams, Mr. Hostel produces used in 18 may be a second to the second to th

So the challenge "See in helping to rearrhad the real strengths of this ration of sarried people to fingle a perfectivity among equals committed to the fall seakuration of the founding principles of this great country."

Priority than has falter over from Roy Millains, who is less secceeded Malter White upon his cleath in April 1986. While fivel joined the MAACP staff as assistant societary in 1981. He had been sharefully managing order of the Kansa City Call, where he getned the regulation as a cranacter against repair and as year.

Before Welter Write there had been James Beldede Jührese, who begin the crusies against brothless and the second by the first second by the first second with the second will be second wi

Fairs of Lynsking, 1889-1918, which is still available at the NAACP National Office.

Johnson is especially remembered for his crea-

Johnson is especially remembered for his creation of "Lift Evity Visice and Sing," which today is popularly reterred to as the black national anthers. It was from one of these stances that the NAACP 1977 convention slogan, "Our New Day Recent," was taken, Begue, was sales.

Other executive secretaries, as they were then known, were John P. Shillady, the first fully paid executive administrator. Roy Hash, May Châde Henriey, Mary White Ovington and Miss Francis Basedeer.

Lits his predecessors, Mr. Hosks is a sessored tender. A well-known and lightly affective sales, he has pursuad a varied career. He is a liceased winder, between and length, they are a licease with the Middle Baptist Church in Medical Baptist Church in Medical Baptist Church in Church in Church in Medical Baptist Church in Destroit, Marin Destroit, Marin Saptist Church in Destroit Marin Saptist Ch

In Justice, Nature, He wis confinencer and Vice President of the Matual Federal Savings and Leas Association of Memphis for 15 years, from 1985 to 1991. This was a current that he pursued while also working both in law and the ministry. For several years, Mr. Hooks was an Assistant For several years, Mr. Hooks was an Assistant

For several years, Mr. Hodes was an Assistant Patric Certainer in Managinia, representing the legal interests of the poor and indigent. He seek patricts and the same selected as the first blest judge is Shotby County Managinia Christian Court, where he served with delimition for assistant year.

Mr. Hools has produced from Memphis and hosted his senticlevision program, "Convenations in Black and White," expendenced another, "Forty Percent Speaks" and has been a panelist on "What is Your Faith."

Barri in Memphis on January 31, 1985, he attracked Lekkyre College and Howard University. He received his J.D. degree from DePart Univernity, College of Law in 1948. He is a Works that It wideson and served in Italy in the Stind Intanty.

He is a Life Member of the MARCP and second on the Board of Directors of the Southern Christian Loadership Continuous, the Tanadasse Council on Human Relations in Managha and the high Council on Human Relations in Managha and the high or amendment of the American Bar Association and the Judicial Council of the MARC Mr. Hooks and his wife Princes have a chapter, Mar. Patricial Loade Gays, and here paredistriers.

l b

and highly effective orator, he has pursued a varied career. He is a licensed minister, businessman and lawyer. He is pastor on leave from the Middle Baptist Church in Memphis and the Greater New Moriah Baptist Church in Detroit, Mich.

He was co-founder and Vice President of the Mutual Federal Savings and Loan Association of Memphis for 15 years, from 1955 to 1969. This was a career that he pursued while also working both in law and the ministry.

For several years, Mr. Hooks was an Assistant Public Defender in Memphis, representing the legal interests of the poor and indigent. He next practiced general law in Memphis and was later selected as the first black judge in Shelby County (Memphis) Criminal Court, where he served with distinction for several years.

Mr. Hooks has produced from Memphis and hosted his own television program, "Conversations in Black and White," co-produced another, "Forty Percent Speaks" and has been a panelist on "What Is Your Faith."

Born in Memphis on January 31, 1925, he attended LeMoyne College and Howard University. He received his J.D. degree from DePaul University, College of Law in 1948. He is a World War II veteran and served in Italy in the 92nd infantry division.

He is a Life Member of the NAACP and once served on the Board of Directors of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, The Tennessee Council on Human Relations in Memphis and the Shelby County Human Relations Committee. He is a member of the American Bar Association and the Judicial Council of the NBA. Mr. Hooks and his wife Frances have a daughter, Mrs. Patricia Louise Gray, and two grandchildren.

142

Delegate Magazine 1978 Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers Extracted Mar-28-2024 01:42:01

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: https://transcription.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian

On Twitter: @smithsonian