[[caption]] ITT Continental Baking Company's 1982 Black Achievers Awards presented to Gene Crawford (left), Personnel Manager, Jamaica bakers and Louis Montgomery (right), cake department superintendent, St. Louis bakery. With them is David H. Kiernan, Vice President, Corporate Affairs who hosted luncheon for awardees prior to awards dinner at Hilton Hotel, New York City by Harlem Branch YMCA. The Harlem Y's project "Salute to Black Achievers in Industry" provides a vehicle for recognizing outstanding achievement by minorities in business and industry. Their successes serve to motivate minority youth to achieve in their own right and the program generates funds to support various youth programs offered by the YMCA to young people in the Harlem community. National Museum of African American History and Culture

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
