January 8th, 1936.

Mr. J. Chenue,
10, Great St. Andrew Street,
Shaftesbury Avenue,
LONDON.

Dear Sir:

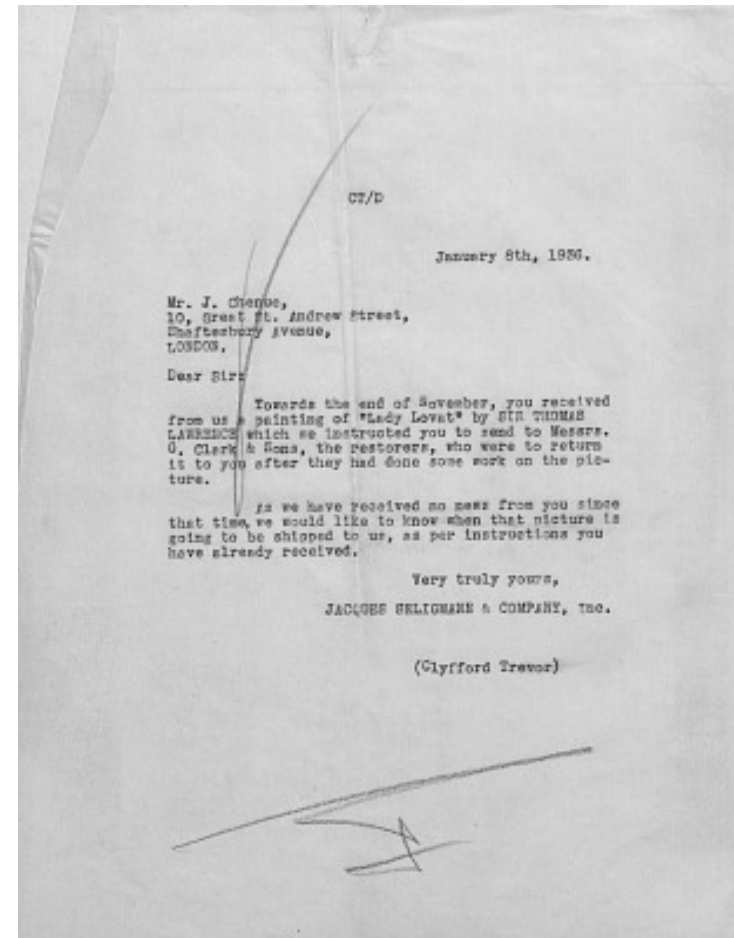

Towards the end of November, you received from us a painting of "Lady Lovat" by SIR THOMAS LAWRENCE which we instructed you to send to Messrs. G. Clark & Sons, the restorers, who were to return it to you after they had done some work on the picture.

As we have received no news from you since that time, we would like to know when that picture is going to be shipped to us, as per instructions you have already received.

Very truly yours,
JACQUES SELIGMANN & COMPANY, Inc.

(Clyfford Trevor)

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
