Dear Glen A. Knabenshue,

Congratulations and Best Wishes on your father being enshrined in the Aviation Hall of Fame.

Great men such as your father who pioneered aviation will never be forgotten.

As I have been in the Aircraft field since 1942 and plan to exhibit and lecture on men and women who made aviation history in the near future, I would greatly appreciate a picture of your father and his airship.

Thank you and want to wish you and yours a Happy New Year

Respectfully yours,

Arthur O. Shackman

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
