Dear Raymond:

I enclose the usual monthly statement.

Nothing unusual to speak or write about, with the exception of the fact that Mr. Howard. is unable to pay his note at this time, but states that he will pay at least $400.00 each six months, from Nov. 1st: also, Mr. Galvin. cannot pay his note either, but expects to have someone in line in a few days: Interest on both was payable today; received money in cash from Galvin. Howards' is in the mail.

Received check to amount of $30.00 from Framingham Building Assn. today, that is something.

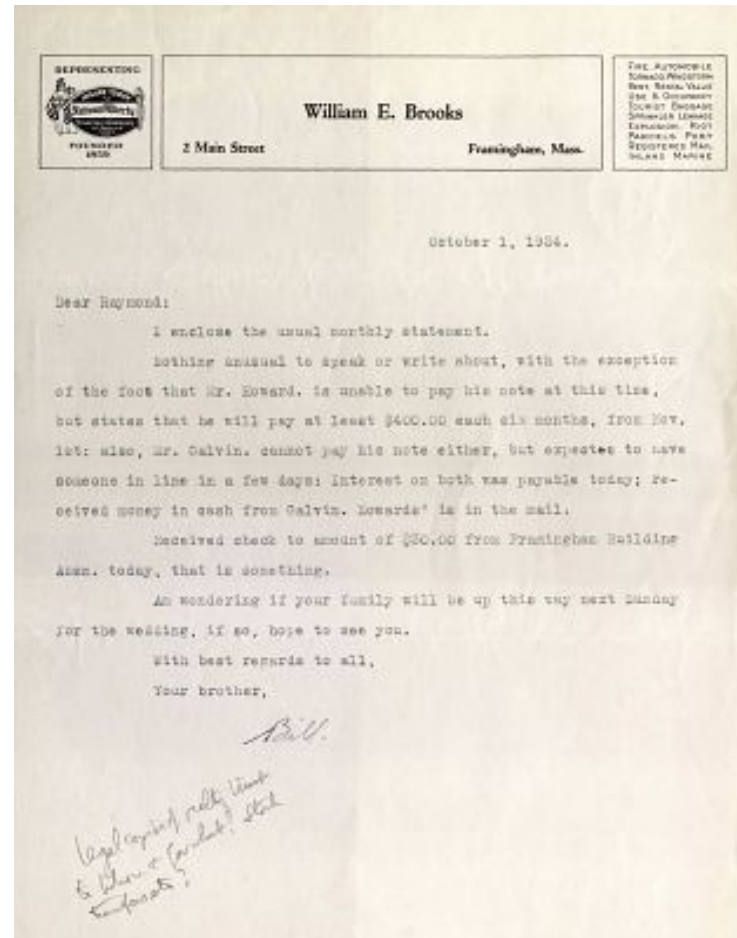

Am wondering if your family will be up this way next Sunday for the wedding, if so, hope to see you.

With best regards to all,

Your brother,

Bill
