FRAMINGHAM, MASS.

January 1, 1935.

Dear Raymond:

Your letter of December 30th, with enclosure is received, we thank you and wish all, the same.

I enclose the usual monthly statement, you will notice a charge of $52.01 for public liability on the Old Colony, also a credit of $41.61, which amount covers the operator.

The note payment is made in order to close the account for year 1934. I understand that checks to account will be received soon.

Expected to receive another payment from Mc Cann, as per conversation with him last week, but, havent received it yet.

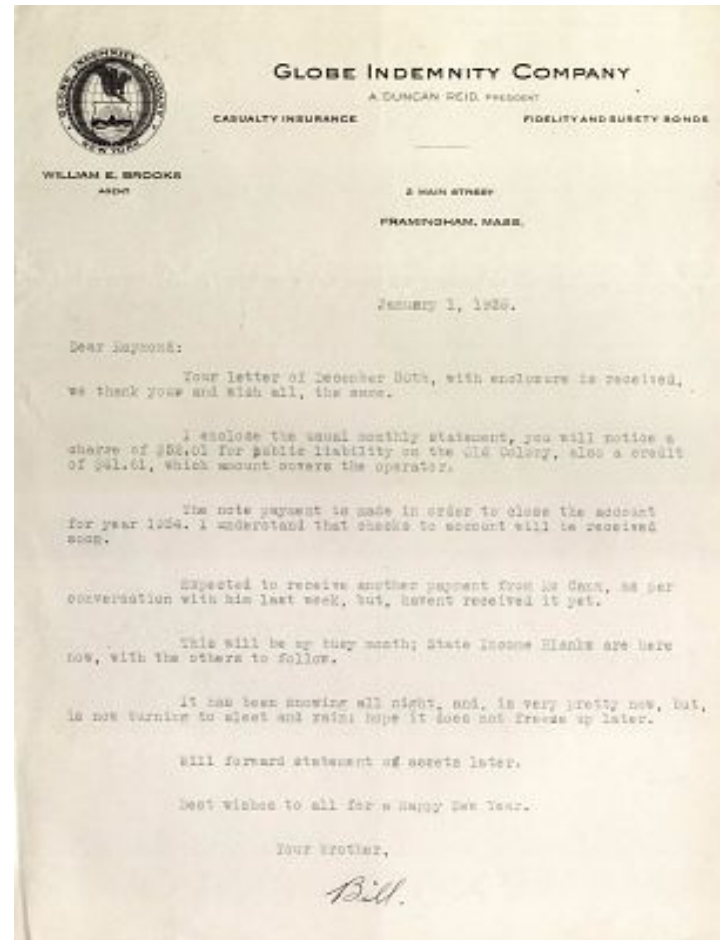

This will be my busy month; State Income Blankets are here now, with the others to follow.

It has been snowing all night, and, is very pretty now, but, is now turning to sleet and rain: hope it does not freeze up later.

Will forward statement of assets later.

Best wishes to all for a Happy New Year.

Your brother,
Bill.
