November 20, 1953

Dear Sir:

Do have my thanks for your pleasant lines of November 12.

I am indeed much looking forward to receiving the photographs of the two 16th century drawings you mention. They would definitely come within the realm of drawings of interest to me, in principle at least.

Mr. Stora was good enough to show me the drawing you entrusted to him.

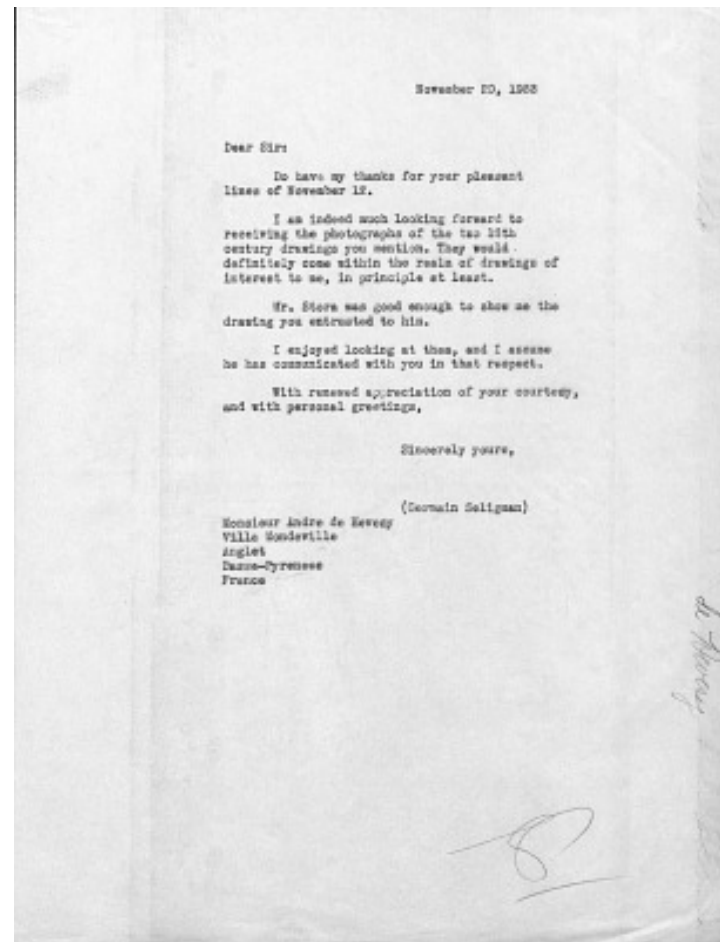

I enjoyed looking at them, and I assume he has communicated with you in that respect.

With renewed appreciation of your courtesy, and with personal greetings,

Sincerely yours,

(Germain Seligman)
