

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

Jacques Seligmann & Co. records, General Correspondence: Dillman, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh, 1926-1943

Extracted on Mar-28-2024 07:58:45

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives of American Art as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives of American Art website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives of American Art or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives of American Art. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

May 3rd, 1937

Dear Hugh:

I hope you reached home safely, rested and found everything in good order.

First of all, let me thank you for the extremely thoughtful and nice wire on my re-instatement with Seligmann's. I am certainly most confident that the move I made was a good one and here's hoping that all your good wishes may come true.

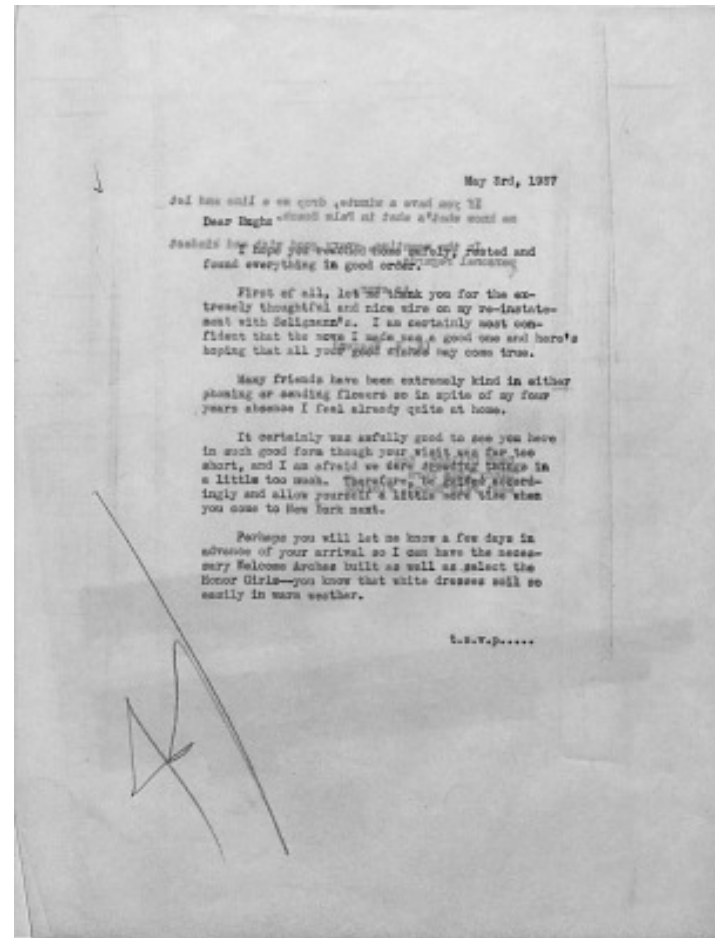

Many friends have been extremely kind in either phoning or sending flowers so in spite of my four years absence I feel already quite at home.

It certainly was awfully good to see you here in such good form though your visit was far too short, and I am afraid we were crowding things in a little too much. Therefore, be guided accordingly and allow yourself a little more time when you come to New York next.

Perhaps you will let me know a few days in advance of your arrival so I can have the necessary Welcome Arches built as well as select the Honor Girls-- you know that white dresses soil so easily in warm weather.

t.s.v.p.....

GS

Jacques Seligmann & Co. records, General Correspondence: Dillman, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh, 1926-1943
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Mar-28-2024 07:58:45

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian