story of "Aviation in the First World War." I talked for almost two hours, and the narrative was well received - I'm glad to say.

The one given by Col Gabriaki was probably the most interesting. He is the country's leading (living) Ace - with 31 victories to his credit. He was flying P-47s - until he crashed and was captured. (prisoner for 10 months).

He is presently the President of the LI RR. (He deserves our pity).

I hope all goes well with you down there.

Take care.

Sincerely,
Jerry
