She has also been to Tangiers. Fez and Marrakesh plus one trip to the desert. The border skirmishes in the south keep us from getting into the Sahara but maybe before we leave we will get a chance to see that. I also want to see some of the sub-sahara black Africa!

Martha, Bill and the 3 children (12-13-15) will be over in July for 2 weeks. I can hardly stand the anticipation! How I love them - They sent me a family portrait for Christmas which I cherish!

I have friends who have just bought an old house and are settling in Waco Texas. Small world. He is retired army comptroller. She was my "walking around" buddy in Bangkok. What was your name when you were flying in Waco - Weaver?

Today I have a Malaysian luncheon to attend so must get dressed.

Do write again - I will not lose you so please know you can write anytime.

Fondly
Helen

A photograph of a handwritten letter on blue paper. The handwriting is in cursive and matches the typed transcription on the left. The letter discusses travel plans to Tangiers, Fez, and Marrakesh, mentions border skirmishes in the Sahara, and talks about family visits in July. It also mentions a friend's new house in Waco, Texas, and a Malaysian luncheon. The letter ends with a sign-off: 'Fondly Helen'.
