

Smithsonian Institution

Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives

Hattie Meyers Junkin Papers - Journal articles about Hattie

Extracted on Apr-19-2024 06:43:09

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

[[left column]]

Tres Pedres, New Mexico. She was accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. William M. Baxter, who is the guest now of Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Baxter.

¶Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Hagedorn and their family, of Indian Lane, who have spent the summer at Nantucket, returned to Washington on September 16th. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Montgomery, who have occupied the Hagedorn residence during the summer months, have gone to their home on Davis Street.

¶Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Saunders, of Klinge Street, and their three children, Miss Elizabeth Saunders, Miss Dorothy Saunders, and Mr. Robert Saunders, spent the first two weeks in September at Cape May, New Jersey, where they had an apartment.

¶Mr. James Heaton, of Indian Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Heaton, and Mr. John Mitchell Waters, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Waters, of Forty-fifth Street, left early in September for Gettysburg College, where the former will begin a pre-medical course and the latter his junior year in the College of Liberal Arts. Mr. Waters had planned to begin his college career last year but instead, spent the

[[/left column]]

[[right column]]

[[image]]

[[image caption]] A recent photograph of Mrs. Ralph Barnaby before the glider in which she actually qualified for her glider license. Mrs. Barnaby was the first woman to achieve this distinction. [[/image caption]] year cruising around the world on the S. S. City of Dalhart. Mr. and Mrs. Waters have rented their house in Wesley Heights and have taken an apartment in Washington for the next year.

¶Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Connor Roberts and their two sons, of Forty-fourth Street, returned after Labor Day from a vacation spent at Bethany Beach.

[[/right column]]

[[image]]

Photo by Backrack

[[image caption]] Mrs. Layton R. Colburn, of Klinge Street, with her two pets. Il Duce, the St. Bernard, is a friend to most of the residents of the community. The picture was made in Mrs. Colburn's gardens. [[/image caption]]

Smithsonian Institution

Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian