Why did this squadron win?

Skillful piloting...superior planes...all of them Boeing Pursuits, Wasp-powered. This combination won for the 95th Pursuit Squadron of Rockwell Field the honor of serving as the Exhibition Pursuit Squadron during the recent praiseworthy maneuvers of the Army Air Corps.

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
