

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

Pamphlet: The Negro Worker Vol. 4 No. 2

Extracted on Apr-19-2024 02:49:24

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the National Museum of African American History and Culture as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the National Museum of African American History and Culture website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact National Museum of African American History and Culture or transcribe@si.edu set up by the workers and peasants which has shown itself as the only force capable of liberating China. It is this Soviet power that has aroused the fear and hatred of the Japanese and other Imperialist bandits and which they seek by all means to destroy.

For more information on this project and related material, contact the National Museum of African American History and Culture. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

The adventures of the ruling Japanese military cliques who seek to hide their real war aims under the deceptive slogans of <<Peace and harmony in the Far East>> can only result in a most devastating war in the Pacific.

These Imperialist adventurers, backed by the other Imperialist powers particularly Great Britain have time and again sought to provoke a war with Russia. They are now feverishly preparing for it. They have tremendously increased their armed forces near the Russian border waiting for an opportune moment to attack and attempt to destroy the first working class Republic.

It is the firm peace policy of Soviet Russia which has so far prevented a war. But it is also her tremendous strength and her powerful Red Army which have kept these brigands from attacking her.

The danger of a war in the Far East becomes even greater because of the simultaneous preparations of war in Europe, which becomes daily more threatening.

In the struggle against her Imperialist rivals for the mastery of the Pacific, Japan does not fail to utilize her propaganda machinery to influence and draw support from among Negroes and other colonial peoples for her Imperialist robber policy in the Far East. Utilizing the seething discontent and revolutionary feelings of the Negro masses against their white oppressors, the Japanese capitalists and their agents carry on a subtle propaganda among the Negro workers under the slogan of <<Japan is the defender and champion of the darker races>>. The Negro mis-leaders, especially in the United States try to justify Japan's robber policy saying that <<if Japan does not take over China, the white Imperialists will>>. Thus they support Japan's murderous policy against the Chinese people. It is nothing but a justification of Japan's brutal exploitation and suppression of the Korean and Formosan people who are groaning under the iron heel of the Japanese ruling class.

The Japanese Imperialists are no champion of allies of the darker peoples. They are the allies of the white capitalists in the exploitation and oppression of the colonial toilers. For the workers, black, brown and white to break the chain of slavery and be free men and women, they must unite their forces and struggle to defeat all the Imperialist robbers. Only in this way can they secure their liberation.

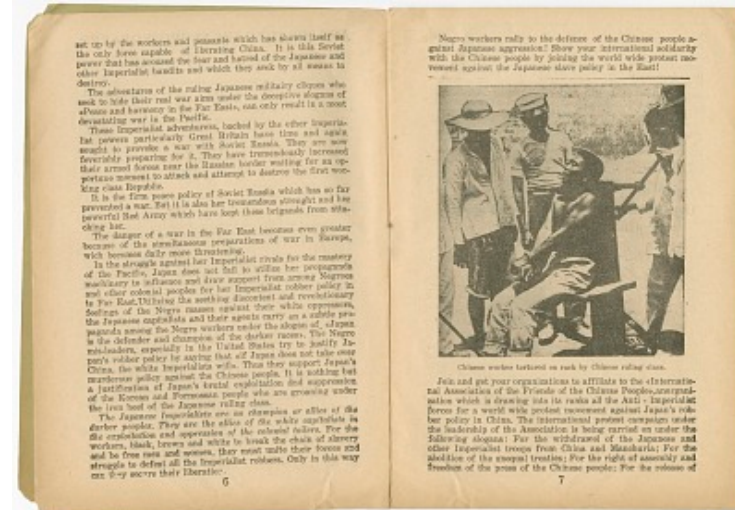

6

Negro workers rally to the defence of the Chinese people against Japanese aggression!@ Show your international solidarity with the Chinese people by joining the world wide protest movement against the Japanese slave policy in the East!

[[image]]

[[caption]] Chinese worker tortured on rack by Chinese ruling class.

[[caption]]

Join and get your organizations to affiliate to the <<International Association of the Friends of the Chinese People>> an organization which is drawing into its ranks all Anti-Imperialist forces for a world wide protest movement against Japan's robber policy in China. The international protest campaign under the leadership of the Association is being carried on under the following slogans: For the withdrawal of the Japanese and other Imperialist troops from China and Manchuria; For the abolition of the unequal treaties; For the right of assembly and freedom of the press of the Chinese people; For the release of

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian