Fryday, Jan, 15th 1886

When I came in the school room today Pearl was laughing fit to kill, she said that she hunted the house over and could not find her books, and did not think of them till she started to school. Maggie didn't go to school today. As we were coming home from school we found a dead dog that had been hung.
Pa and Ma are gone to Jonesboro. It rained today, and the snow is melting fast.

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
