

Smithsonian Institution

Smithsonian Institution Archives

Doris Sidney Blake - School Papers

Extracted on Apr-19-2024 02:04:22

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Smithsonian Institution Archives as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Smithsonian Institution Archives website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Smithsonian Institution Archives or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Smithsonian Institution Archives. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

yellow. I saw two swans and some goldfish. Then we went to a [[an]] alligator farm. I saw lots of alligators. There were 6000 alligators. There was a museum of wild animals [[animals]]. There were more things than alligators there. There were ostriches, gray foxes, raccons [[raccoons]], monkeys, and pelicans. There were owls too. I saw a crockidile [[crocodile]]. There was an alligator with 5 legs. One grew from the middle of his back. There were alligators [[alligators]] an inch long. They were babies, and were striped. They were the only ones for sale. They cost a dollar each. There were big alligators. I saw one eat a fish. I looked at the owles [[owls]]. There were four of them. They were horned owls. One looked as though he would like to nip my nose off. I saw a [[an]] albino yellow. I saw two swans and some goldfish. Then we went to a alligator farm. I saw lots of alligators. There were 6000 alligators. There was a museum of wild animals. There were more things than alligators there. There were ostriches, gray foxes, raccons monkeys, and pelicans. There were owls too. I saw a crockidile. There was an alligator with 5 legs. One grew from the middle of his back. There were alligators an inch long. They were babies, and were striped. They were the only ones for sale. They cost a dollar each. There were big alligators. I saw one eat a fish. I looked at the owles. There were four of them. They were horned owls. One looked as though he would like to nip my nose off. I saw a albino

Doris Sidney Blake - School Papers
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Apr-19-2024 02:04:22

Smithsonian Institution

Smithsonian Institution Archives

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian