The National Religious Training School

"I cordially commend the school's interest and needs to all who believe in the Negro race and in our obligation to help promote its intellectual, moral and religious uplift."

- Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst, New York City

IT IS MORE THAN A MERE SCHOOL
IT IS A COMMUNITY OF SERVICE AND UPLIFT
Its influence is destined to be felt in all sections of the country in improved Negro community life wherever our trained workers locate. Settlement workers, missionaries for home and foreign mission fields, Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. secretaries and district nurses receive a comprehensive grasp of their studies under a Wellesley graduate and experienced co-workers and actual every-day practice through the school's SOCIAL SERVICE DEPARTMENT.
We aim also to create a better qualified ministry.
Industrial training, advanced literary branches, business school.
Thirty-two acres; ten modern buildings ; healthful location.
We can accommodate a few more earnest, ambitious students.
Communities requiring social workers should write us.

For catalog and detailed information address:

Nation Religious Training School Durham, N.C.
The school has no endowment fund and must raise a yearly maintenance fund of $15,000 for running expenses. Won't you help us this year?

The Cheyney Training School for Teachers Cheyney, Pennsylvania

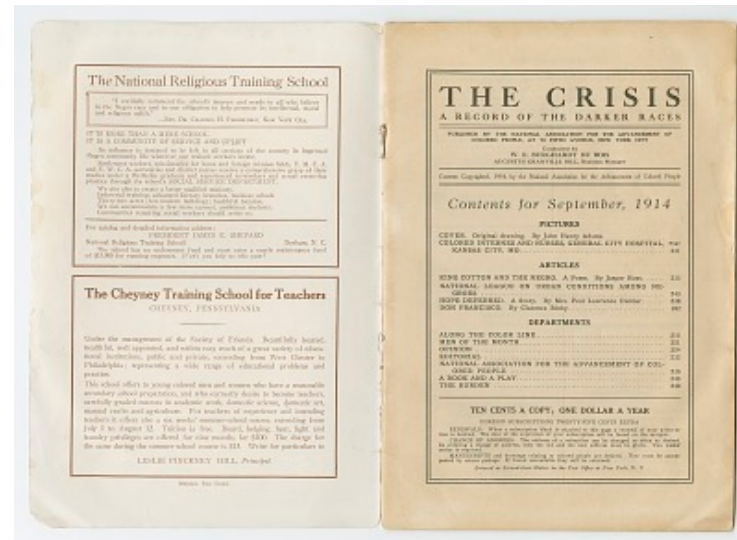

Under the management of the Society of Friends. Beautifully located, healthful, well appointed and within easy reach of a great variety of educational institutions, public and private, extending from West Chester to Philadelphia; representing a wide range of educational problems and practice.

This school offers to young colored men and women who have a reasonable secondary school preparation, and who earnestly desire to become teachers., carefully graded courses in academic work, domestic science, domestic art, manual crafts and agriculture. For teachers of experience and intending teachers it offers also a six weeks' summer-school course, extending from July 1 to August 12. Tuition is free. Board, lodging, heat, light and laundry privileges are offered for nine months for $100. The charge for the same during summer-school course is $15. Write for particulars to
LESLIE PINCKNEY HILL, Principal
