Alan K. Simpson, Cody, Wyoming. A member of the Board of Regents, Senator Simpson stems from a long line of Simpsons in public life both in Wyoming and the Nation's capital. Before his election to the U.S. Senate in 1978, he was an attorney in Wyoming, Assistant Attorney General of the state, and a representative in the Wyoming House of Representatives. He is active in a wide variety of other activities, including the boards of the Buffalo Bill Historical Center, the Grand Teton Music Festival, and Fort Phil Kearny, Bozeman Trail Association. He is also a lifetime member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and a member of the American Legion.

Stanley O. Ikenberry, Chicago, Illinois. Dr. Ikenberry is President of the University of Illinois. A professor of education, he has taught and held administrative positions at Michigan State University, West Virginia University, and Penn State before assuming the presidency at Illinois in 1979. He has served as the Chairman of the American Council on Education, the Association of American Universities, the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, the Big Ten Council of Presidents, and numerous other organizations. He also serves on several corporate boards.
