MARION PARKS

July 1, 1934

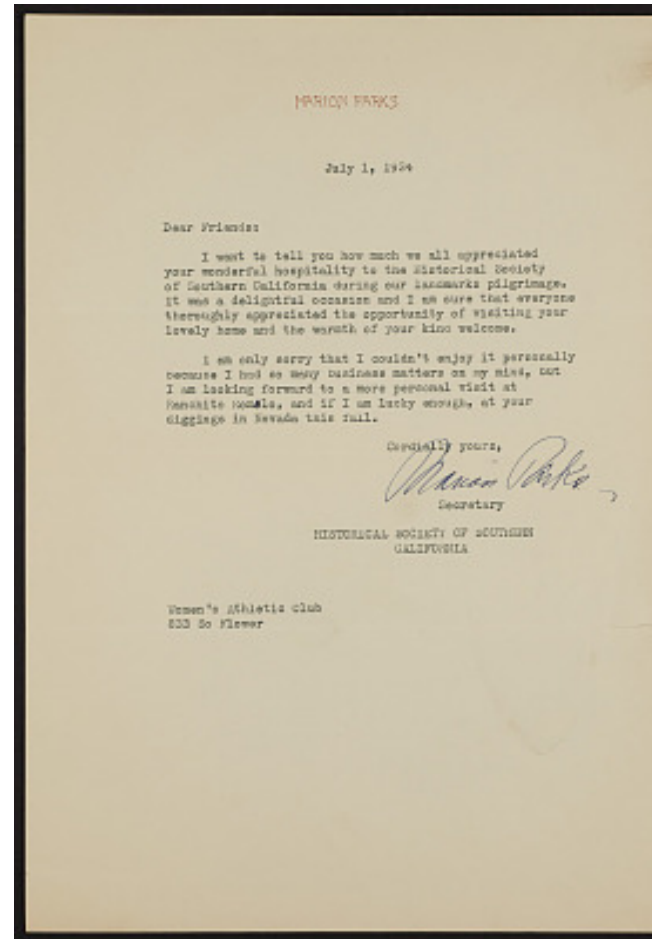

Dear Friends:

I want to tell you how much we all appreciated your wonderful hospitality to the Historical Society of Southern California during our landmarks pilgrimage. It was a delightful occasion and I am sure that everyone thoroughly appreciated the opportunity of visiting your lovely home and the warmth of your kind welcome.

I am only sorry that I couldn't enjoy it personally because I had so many business matters on my mind, but I am looking forward to a more personal visit at Ranchito Romo, and if I am lucky enough, at your diggings in Nevada this fall.

Cordially yours,
Marion Parks
Secretary

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
