My dear Doctor

Regret exceedingly that your stay was so hurried. I had looked forward to a longer visit, especially as you [?][?] a short time ago you [?][?] stop off for a day or so - I had hoped to have shown you K.C. and renew that St. Louis acquaintanceship.

After you left I looked around and found several very interesting pieces - that were overlooked in our hurry - and which I have [?] hidden away in odd corners for the [?] of room - I wanted to hear your ideas as to [?] and the interpretation - I know so little about these things and [?] willing to learn
