The upper part of the front of the Chasse is slightly restored, but the rest is in wonderful condition with its beautiful old gilding and the enamels which are transparent - a quality of the early enamels on Chasses of this type.

I will be in Detroit again towards the middle of the month and I certainly will not fail to look you up. I take advantage of this letter to tell you what a great pleasure it was for me to meet you and Mr. Ford and how I enjoyed the short time I spent in your company.

With my kindest regards, please believe me
Very sincerely yours,

(René Seligmann)
